A MODEL POLITICIAN.

A general row has been kicked up over Indian Agent Howe of the western Shoshone reservation. There is probably a little fire here somewhere, as the smoke rises voluminously. Mr. Howe's antecedents are peculiar. He is a ferocious Democrat and has the credit of saying when Daggett spoke at Elko last year: "Such fellows ought to be hung. They are all the time stirring up the South." Mr. Howe was three times Mayor of St. Louis, and has been very rich in his day. When Carl Schurz was elected to the Senate from Missouri Mr. Howe was at the height of his political power, and some rumor says he reached out a helping hand to the aspiring immigrant. In 1880 there was some pressure brought to bear against Mr. Howe on account of his being caught trafficking in liquor without a license. He paid a penalty of over a hundred dollars, but kept his place because (as it was said) nothing could move him while Schurz staid in the Cabinet. Just why Mr. Cassidy bounces his fellow Democrat is hard to see. Both are from St. Louis, and there may be some underground influences at work that people here do not see. Meantime Mr. Howe would do the country honor as a suspended rather than an active agent.

THE SUNDAY LAW IN CALIFORNIA.

The Sunday Law in California begins to assume an interesting aspect, particularly in San Francisco. A delegation of ministers and temperance people petitioned the Mayor to enforce the law, and subsequently held a meeting at the Young Men's Christian Association. The Chief of Police issued on Monday warrants for the arrest of 570 violators, with bail fixed at $20 cash, or $100 by bond. The law-breakers were only arrested as matter of form, bonds being furnished by the "League of Freedom." Yesterday several hundred anti-Sabbath observers marched, headed by a band of 12 pieces, immediately followed by the president of the League of Freedom, J. W. Shaffer, to the City Hall, who deposited $51,200 bonds for 512 violators. The same excitement prevails in all the principal cities of California.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Edwards don't want a boss. He says: The Grass Valley Union and Reno Journal make the announcement that Deacon Parkinson is soon to assume editorial management of the Truckee Republican. It is rather refreshing to learn that the editors of these papers have not only decreed that we shall surrender the editorial nail keg, but have obligingly appointed our successor. We presume the venerable journalist who controls the destinies of the Carson Tribune will at once pack his grip sack and start for Truckee.

The Argonaut has a religious department in which it copies from the Baptist Weekly this truthful tale: "Little Tommy, to escape a well-deserved whipping, ran from his mother and crept under the house. Presently the father came home, and hearing where the boy had taken refuge, crept under to bring him out. As he approached on his hands and knees, Tommy asked, 'Is she after you, too?'"

It is said that just before the crash in the Union Generale, in France, the banker Merigot, all his shares, at the pleasing price of $500 per share, thus realizing a nice profit, and proving once again the truth of the "Non possumus errare."

Rev. Father DeMarzi, of Benigis, has received a very complimentary letter from Mrs. Garfield, in which she asks him to accept her sincere thanks for the beautiful funeral march dedicated to her deceased husband.

The sum of $2,090,653.08 in gold and silver has been received from the mines in New York City since January 1st.

General Roscoran was born in Ohio in 1819.

Congressional—House.

WASHINGTON, March 23.

When the Chinese bill came up in the House to-day Richardson, of South Carolina, expressed his intention of voting for the bill, though his preference would be to reduce the term of suspension to 10 years.

Wise (Pa.) contended that unrestrained Chinese immigration would result in great injury to the material interests of the country, and for that reason would give the bill his support.

Morse (Massachusetts), based his objection to the bill upon the ground that it would be destroying commerce between the United States and China. The markets of the latter country would be forever closed against the United States by the mad policy which had nothing to recommend it, except a small and mean temporary advantage.

Numerous amendments were offered and Page at 3 o'clock demanded the previous question, which was seconded by a practically unanimous vote. One hour being allowed for closing the debate, Page yielded ten minutes to Robinson to finish his remarks. He denounced the bill in its present form as a violation of the treaty, but said he would vote for a ten years suspension.

PAGE CLOSES THE DEBATE.

Page closed the debate with a brief and vigorous defense of the bill, and an earnest appeal for its passage.

A VOTE ON THE AMENDMENT.

The amendment reducing the term of suspension to fifteen years was rejected, 99 against 81.

THE BILL PASSED.

The House at 5:15 passed the Chinese bill without amendment, by a vote of 77 yeas against 65 nays.

RELIEVE THE DESTITUTE.

WASHINGTON, March 23.

The following call has been issued: TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE:—The President having signed the treaty of the Geneva Conference, and the Senate having ratified the President's action, the American Association of Red Cross, organized under the provisions of said treaty, proposes, at once, to send its agents to alleviate the sufferings caused by the recent floods, with a view to ameliorating their condition so far as can be done by human aid and means at their hands will admit of. Contributions are urgently solicited. Remittances in money may be made to the Hon. Charles J. Folger, Secretary of the Treasury, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, or to his associate Hon. R. T. Lincoln, Secretary of War, and Hon. George B. Loring, Commissioner of Agriculture. Contributions of wearing apparel, bedding and provisions should be addressed to the Red Cross agents at Memphis, Tennessee; Vicksburg, Mississippi; and Helena, Arkansas.

AN INDIAN FIGHTER.

CHICAGO, March 23.

A Times' Winnipeg, Manitoba, letter from Fort McLeod gives the particulars of an outbreak among the Blackfoot Indians in that quarter, which seemed likely at one time to give rise to serious consequences. Chief Crowfoot set the regulations aside and proceeded to raid settlers and Government property for provisions, and was successful in several instances. Commander Croser, who was left at Fort McLeod with 50 men, was determined to stop this, but Crowfoot proved quite taciturn, and for some time avoided the movements of the police. At the same time he evinced a willingness to make actual hostilities should a favorable opportunity offer. Captain Croser, however, determined to bring him to time with the small force at his disposal, and having erected bastions and provisioned his garrison in case of accident to it, made such a determined pursuit of him that the latter, on being surprised, deemed it advisable to surrender. He was safely lodged in the Fort by the commander, and the ring, thus deprived of its head, was effectually squashed.

JONES KNOWS.

WASHINGTON, March 23.

Senator Jones, of Nevada, was asked this evening whether he credited the report that President Arthur is disposed to veto the pending Chinese bill. "No, I do not," replied the Senator. "Some of our people are apprehensive of a veto, but I am not. My confidence does not spring from anything the President has said to me about this particular measure, but from my knowledge of the opinions he entertains concerning the exercise of the veto power."

STAR ROUTERS.

WASHINGTON, March 23.

The cases of the United States against Thomas J. Brady, ex-Senator

S. W. Dorsey, H. M. Vail, and other defendants in the Star Route cases, was called in the Criminal Court this morning. None of the defendants were in Court. Counsel for the defense said they were not ready to plead. Colonel Bliss said the Government had waited long enough. He understood that one of the principal defendants had shown his appreciation of the importance of the charges against him by leaving this city for New Mexico. He stated that Stephen W. Dorsey had not been placed under bonds, and asked that the Court compel his attendance. Col. Ingersoll said there was no need of such proceedings. There was nothing in the charges to cause Dorsey's flight. He is no more afraid of them than is hunger of mince pie. The prosecution, however, insisted upon Dorsey's arrest. The Court said it was their privilege to have an order issued. The hearing was then postponed until Saturday next.

BOILER EXPLOSION.

PHILADELPHIA, March 23.

The tug-boat Henry C. Spratt exploded her boiler this morning, killing four men. George Scully, the Captain, was blown over the house-top in Water street. The dead bodies of McCann and Patrick Flanagan, the fireman, and a man named Molany, have been recovered. John Lyons, the engineer, and two others, are missing. Immediately following the explosion the flames broke out in all directions, and pier No. 8, occupied as a passenger and freight station, for the Philadelphia and Atlantic City railway, took fire and was destroyed. The tug, Ella, lying at her wharf below, also took fire and sank, after being well burned. Windows were shattered in all directions for blocks. The three dead bodies were found in the street. Molany has been found, having had a very narrow escape from the fire. The watchman came near losing his life.

INCREASING MISERIES.

HELENA, Ark., March 23.

Persons on the low lands are living without the necessities of life. Nearly all their stock has perished, and the few remaining are fast disappearing with starvation under their eyes. There is not a visible spot of land, not even the top of a house. In some places the water rose with such rapidity that it was impossible to build rafts upon which to place their stock. Most of the people are huddled together on the tops of houses, in consequence of which a violent form of scarlet fever has broken out.

Smallpox in an Iowa Jail.

DES MOINES, March 23.

Smallpox developed itself in the county jail yesterday, creating consternation among the twenty inmates and among the court and county officials. The jail being under the Court House the court adjourned in haste. The premises are quarantined and two convicts removed to the pest-house. The doctors disagree as to the diagnosis of the cases.

Court Decision.

KEOKUK, Iowa, March 23.

Judge Love, of the United States court, decides that plaintiff cannot recover from a telegraph company on account of failure to send a dispatch to Chicago ordering the purchase of an option, because the laws of business forbid option trading.

FOREIGN.

Land in Ireland.

LONDON, March 21.

Gladstone, in acknowledging the receipt of Charles Russell's memorial in favor of enabling the Land Court to make decisions retrospective, so far as they can, regarding arrears for rent, and to grant loans to tenants for the payment of arrears, writes that the documents will receive that careful attention due to its importance.

The Car's Recommendation.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 23.

The Car has refused to confirm the recommendation of the Commissioner on the Jewish question, in favor of compelling the Jews to quit rural districts, on the ground that such expulsion would almost ruin agriculture.

Married.

PARIS, March 23.

M. Della Jeannet Bonaparte, the daughter of Prince Pierre Bonaparte, who shot Victor Noir, was married to-day to the Marquis de Villeneuve Paragmont, a Legitimist.

Friendly Relations.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 23.

General Skobeleff, in speaking of a military banquet in his honor, warmly alluded to the friendly relations between England and Russia.

TOOMBSTONE, March 23.

The Grand Jury find that Morgan D. Earp came to his death at the hands of Frank Stillwell, who was killed next day in Tucson by Pete Spence, Juan Freis and two half-breed Indians. The Sheriff's posse, consisting of 20 men, mostly cow-boys, left this morning for the Dragon Mountains, where the Earps are supposed to be. The Sheriff made a weak attempt to arrest the Earps at the Cosmopolitan Hotel before they left, but Wyatt Earp told him he didn't want to see him, that he had seen him once too often, and thereupon the party mounted their horses and rode away. There is a very uneasy feeling among the cowboy element as the Earps are rendered desperate by the attempted assassination of Virgil Earp and the cold-blooded murder of Morgan Earp.

They Saved the Ship.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.

The steamer Columbia, from Portland, on entering the harbor this morning during a dense fog, went on the rocks just outside of Fort Point. She was got off at high water and made rapid strides for the mudflats of Mission Bay, where she arrived with water to her fire, and the fireman waist deep in it. The damage will be considerable.

Devouring Children.

PORTLAND, March 22.

Gussie Graves, a six-year-old stepson of W. J. Magoon, living six miles from Kalama, was terribly mangled by a conger yesterday afternoon from the effects of which he died this morning.

Spiritualistic Manifestations.
Some boys of Grand Haven, Wis., provided themselves with a magic lantern and announced a spiritualistic séance in which wonderful manifestations were promised. A party, mainly composed of credulous and ignorant villagers, were awe-struck by the appearance on the wall of the darkened room of portraits which the bogus medium declared were those of deceased persons, and which some of the spectators believed they recognized as departed relatives and friends. The exposure came when someone threw down the cabinet.

An Arkansas Farm.
"Cattle-King" Powers' lands are situated in the southern part of Arkansas, all under fence, with a river frontage of 18 miles. Near Fort Lyon another ranch covers 80,000 acres, and adjoining this property he owns another pasture of 100,000 acres, all fenced. Over 12,000 head of his cattle graze within 100 miles fencing beyond the Kansas Pacific, southward to Cimmaron and beyond into the Pan Handle of Texas.

The Dallas Times has the story of a sheepherder, named Robert Temple, in that county, falling heir to a large estate.

BULL TONGUE SYRUP.
AN ACCIDENTAL DISCOVERY OF GREAT VALUE.

An Inestimable Benefit to Mankind.
UNCLE BEN JO'S
GRANT SOUTH AMERICAN PA ACEA.

UNCLE BEN JO was born in Boston, in 1800. Being a botanist, he effected many wonderful cures with roots and herbs. In 1814 he went to South America to study botany, and while there accidentally made his great discovery. The natives of this country were quite fond of it, and had a law which prohibited it to be a poisonous herb, which they used for the sole purpose of keeping snakes away from their cattle or houses. This they did by tying it in a circle about the same as a proper dog's collar. This herb, Uncle J., as well as the natives, considered a very obnoxious and poisonous one, and when green and fresh it threw off a very distasteful and repulsive odor. The herb grows about two feet high, and about eight inches of the top part of its stalk is leafless, and this part tops over and hangs downward perpendicularly, and from its curved neck to its end it increases in size, and on the end of the same is a large, burly-looking ball, which stalk and ball, in this hanging position, looks precisely like the tongue of a bell. Hence Uncle J. named it the Bull Tongue Plant. In South America this herb is only found in the extreme interior of the country, and the natives there call it "Zar Zar." It is a wonderful cure of kidney and liver diseases, also, dyspepsia, neuralgia and rheumatism. We have a whole library full of testimonials. Sold by OSBURN & SHORNER, Reno, Nev.

Moline, Ill., July 14, 1881.
H. H. Warner, Esq., Rochester, N. Y.
GENTLEMEN: Your remedy, the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, has been used by both my wife and myself. She used it "on general principles," as a system and liver regulator; I took the medicine for a long-standing liver trouble, which has been the source of much inconvenience, and which failed to yield to the doctor's remedy, or any other, until we used your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure. We both unite in pronouncing it to be the best medicine we ever used, and in recommending it to others as a safe remedy.

My dear Sir: For several years I have been an sufferer, and until your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure was suggested I have not known what it is to be free from pain. My family physician attributed all my suffering to a diseased condition of my kidneys, and after he had failed to give me relief, I tried your remedy, and a well man to-day.

Thousands of equally strong endorsements—many of them in cases where hope was abandoned—have been voluntarily given, showing the remarkable power of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, in all diseases of the kidneys, liver or urinary organs. If an one who reads this has any physical trouble, remember the great danger of delay.

GENTLEMEN: You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by Mrs. F. A. Rogers, as plaintiff in the District Court of the Second Judicial District, in and for the County of Washoe, State of Nevada, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service upon you of this Summons (exclusive of the day of service), if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but in said District, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to recover a judgment against you as defendants in favor of plaintiff, for the sum of $500 gold coin, damages alleged to have been sustained by plaintiff by reason of the breaking and washing away of a certain dam belonging to you defendants, which you erected across the natural channel of Franktown creek, in said county, and thereby obstructed the flow of the waters of said creek, plaintiff alleging that by reason of your unskillfulness in the construction of said dam, and your gross negligence, inattention thereto, and mismanagement thereof, the said dam was broken, and the great flow of water therefrom, on or about the 24th day of February, A. D. 1881, washed upon plaintiff's land and premises, near Franktown, in said county, and destroyed, or about to destroy, large quantities of said crops, etc., which now remain thereon, and damaged her dwelling house thereon to her damage, as alleged in the complaint, and that you will appear from the Complaint which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court at Reno, in said county.

And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said Complaint, the said Court will take judgment for the said amount, besides interest and costs of suit. In testimony whereof, I, R. S. Osburn, have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court, this 24th day of January, A. D. 1883.

R. S. OSBURN, Clerk of the District Court of the 2d Judicial District, Nevada, in and for Washoe County.
